

IRO Certificate #4599

NOTICE OF INDEPENDENT REVIEW DECISION

March 6, 2003

Re: IRO Case # M2-03-0587

Texas Worker's Compensation Commission:

___ has been certified as an independent review organization (IRO) and has been authorized to perform independent reviews of medical necessity for the Texas Worker's Compensation Commission (TWCC). Texas HB. 2600, Rule133.308 effective January 1, 2002, allows a claimant or provider who has received an adverse medical necessity determination from a carrier's internal process, to request an independent review by an IRO.

In accordance with the requirement that TWCC assign cases to certified IROs, TWCC assigned this case to ___ for an independent review. ___ has performed an independent review of the proposed care to determine if the adverse determination was appropriate. For that purpose, ___ received relevant medical records, any documents obtained from parties in making the adverse determination, and any other documents and/or written information submitted in support of the appeal.

The case was reviewed by a physician who is Board Certified in Neurological Surgery. He or she has signed a certification statement attesting that no known conflicts of interest exist between him or her and any of the treating physicians or providers, or any of the physicians or providers who reviewed the case for a determination prior to referral to ___ for independent review. In addition, the certification statement further attests that the review was performed without bias for or against the carrier, medical provider, or any other party to this case.

The determination of the ___ reviewer who reviewed this case, based on the medical records provided, is as follows:

History

The patient is a 36-year-old male who on ___ was lifting and developed low back pain. The pain persisted despite conservative measures, and on 11/27/01 an L4-5, L5-S1 lumbar fusion was performed. Flexion and extension views taken on 8/20/02 show no significant abnormality.

Requested Service

Orthotrac Pneumonic vest

Decision

I agree with the carrier's decision to deny the requested device.

Rationale

There is nothing in the records presented for this review that indicates that a trial related to use of this device was beneficial. In addition there is nothing in the records to suggest instability of the spine on x-rays 8/20/02.

It is noted that the patient has been recommended for a work hardening program. That is incompatible with use of a major device for stabilizing the spine.

This medical necessity decision by an Independent Review Organization is deemed to be a Commission decision and order.
